

US Fish and Wildlife Service Internship Opportunity

Location:	Assabet River National Wildlife Refuge Sudbury, MA
Position Title:	Urban Youth Ambassador Intern
Summary:	Exciting opportunity to work with underserved audiences in the Boston Metrowest and network with local environmental organizations! The Urban Youth Ambassador Intern will work part time (16 hours) for a month and then transition to 8 hours for 24 weeks in the fall. The refuge is in an economically diverse location and is near the urban areas of Hudson, Marlborough and Framingham. The school districts and organizations will be based out of these three towns and others nearby. A background check will be required to gain necessary computer access at the Refuge.
Employment details:	The intern will be establishing an afterschool program for local high school students who will be partnered with an underserved audience near the refuge. The position will include networking with local environmental organizations to design a 12-week interpretive naturalist training for the high school students. Duties include but are not limited to: working with a budget to purchase equipment for the program, outreach to high schools, create an application and interview for the program, and keeping a log to benefit the program in the future.
Qualifications:	Your official address must be 50 miles from Sudbury, MA. Requirements for the position include a valid US driver's license, enthusiasm, public speaking and networking skills, ability to work independently and experience working with teens and/or kids. Past experience in natural resources and/or education is strongly desirable.
Salary:	$11.50/hr College credit would need to be arranged prior through your college/university.
